

Standard 12.4.1 Discuss Article I of the Constitution as it relates to the legislative branch, including eligibility for office and lengths of terms of representatives and senators; election to office; the roles of the House and Senate in impeachment proceedings; the role of the vice president; the enumerated legislative powers; and the process by which a bill becomes a law.

Article I Project

Step 1. Resume

You will be creating a resume of YOUR House of Representatives member and one of your Senators. (If you need help with the resume style you can find many different examples by typing “how to write a resume” in any browser.) You can find information on who your representatives are at www.house.gov and www.senate.gov

The minimum you will need to include in your resume.

- Age
- Year of first election
- Political party affiliation
- Important legislation they have sponsored

Step 2. Find a Bill or Law (How a bill becomes a law)

Choose any Bill or Law you find interesting. You will need to re-trace the steps by writing a chronological sequence of how the bill you chose became a law or the step of the process it is in currently and what steps remain in its journey to become a law.
